Dolce Suono Ensemble Presents 2018-2019

The DSE Presents series will include 5-concerts, featuring DSE core artists, Dolce Suono Trio, and distinguished guests. Dolce Suono Trio opens the season with works by Mendelssohn, Martinu, DSE commissions by Zhou Tian from its newest album American Canvas and Jeremy Gill, and Leonard Bernstein selections arranged by Charles Abramovic celebrating Bernstein's centennial in 2018. DSE will present a program of major works for wind quintet with an all-star cast of woodwind players. "Rediscoveries: Festival of American Chamber Music," a new project for which DSE was awarded a grant from the NEA, is devoted to bringing excellent but underrepresented American chamber music from the 20th century to a wider audience. It will include two concerts and a panel discussion featuring Miranda Cuckson, violin/viola as guest artist. "The Lure of Paris" will highlight works inspired by the city of light from the Baroque through the jazz age, and a world premiere by Anna Weesner for Mimi Stillman, flute, Ricardo Morales, clarinet, and Charles Abramovic, piano.
