ABOUT DOLCE SUONO ENSEMBLE

DOLCE SUONO ENSEMBLE has been dazzling audiences and invigorating the music world since its founding by flutist and Artistic Director Mimi Stillman in 2005. The ensemble presents critically acclaimed chamber music concerts on its home series in Philadelphia, performs on tour, commissions important new works, makes recordings, and engages in community engagement partnerships. Dolce Suono Ensemble was Chamber Music America's featured American Ensemble and has been highly praised by The New York Times as an "adventurous ensemble."

DOLCE SUONO ENSEMBLE presents dynamic and innovative programs of Baroque to new repertoire, in a curatorial vision which sets the music in its broadest cultural context. Some of its intellectually high-protein projects include the celebrated Mahler 100 / Schoenberg 60, Debussy in Our Midst: A Celebration of the 150th Anniversary of Claude Debussy, A Place and a Name: Remembering the Holocaust, and Música en tus Manos (Music in Your Hands), which won the Knight Arts Challenge for its engagement initiative with the Latino community.

DOLCE SUONO ENSEMBLE has performed at prestigious venues including Symphony Space, Southern Exposure New Music Series (SC), Ulster Chamber Music Series, Smithsonian American Art Museum, Roulette (Brooklyn), Princeton University, Bard College, Philadelphia Chamber Music Society, Rutgers University, and residencies at Cornell University, Kingston Chamber Music Festival, and Lake George Music Festival. The ensemble enjoys a partnership with the Washington National Opera Domingo-Cafritz Young Artist Program at the invitation of Plácido Domingo.

DOLCE SUONO ENSEMBLE has contributed major new works to the chamber music repertoire through commissioning, giving 44 world premieres in 11 seasons. Some of today's most eminent composers have written for the ensemble: Jennifer Higdon, Steven Stucky, Shulamit Ran, Richard Danielpour, Steven Mackey, David Ludwig, Zhou Tian, Fang Man, Benjamin C.S. Boyle, Jeremy Gill, and outstanding emerging composers through its Young Composers Competition. The ensemble's recordings "Freedom", music for flute, piano, and the human spirit, and "Odyssey: 11 American Premieres" with Mimi Stillman, flute and Charles Abramovic, piano, both for Innova Recordings, have been widely acclaimed. Dolce Suono Ensemble concerts and recordings are broadcast internationally. www.dolcesuono.com

*"Their stellar artistic clarity and chemistry are palpable onstage and vividly captured on their recent recording Freedom."
-The Huffington Post*

"Mimi Stillman is not only a consummate and charismatic performer, but also a scholar. Her programs tend to activate ear, heart, and brain."
-The New York Times

is one of the most celebrated and innovative flutists of her generation, critically acclaimed for her dazzling artistry and communicative powers. She has performed as soloist with orchestras including The Philadelphia Orchestra, Bach Collegium Stuttgart, Orquesta Sinfónica de Yucatán, and Chamber Orchestra of the Triangle, and as recitalist and chamber musician at venues including Carnegie Hall, The Kennedy Center, Chicago Flute Club, National Sawdust, Verbier Festival, Bedford Chamber Concerts, Kingston Chamber Music Festival, and Kol HaMusica. At age 12, she was the youngest wind player ever admitted to the Curtis Institute of Music, where she studied with the legendary Julius Baker and Jeffrey Khaner. Her many awards and prizes include Young Concert Artists International Auditions, Astral Artists, and the Bärenreiter Prize for Best Historical Performance for Winds.

A wide-ranging artist, Ms. Stillman is equally at home with the classical canon, new music, and Latin genres, and is highly regarded for expanding the flute repertoire through her arrangements and commissions. She holds an MA and PhD (abd) in history from the University of Pennsylvania and is a published author on music and history, integrating scholarship with her artistic vision in projects with her hallmark, thought-provoking depth. A Yamaha Performing Artist and Clinician, she has taught masterclasses for institutions including the National Flute Association, Eastman School of Music, Cornell University, the universities of California, Texas, Maryland, Oklahoma, Delaware, and at conservatories and flute societies throughout the world. She is on faculty at Curtis Summerfest and Music for All National Festival.

Mimi Stillman can be heard on several splendidly reviewed recordings including "Freedom", music for flute, piano, and the human spirit, and "Odyssey: 11 American Premieres" (both Innova), with longstanding duo pianist Charles Abramovic. She is broadcast co-host on WWFM The Classical Network and is a frequent guest speaker for arts organizations and interviewee on radio, television, and online media. As Artistic Director of Dolce Suono Ensemble which she founded in 2005, Mimi Stillman has created a dynamic force in the music world.
